REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD.

To The South Carolina Baptist State Convention:

We are profoundly thankful that we are able to present to you a report full of inspiration and encouragement. For the successes, blessings, delights, and satisfactions of the year's work we acknowledge our indebtedness and pay our thanks to Almighty God, whose we are and whom we serve. The work is His, the great interest in it and the great investment are His. To Him be all the glory. His spirit and guidance and fellowship have been graciously bestowed upon the workers. The general character of the work has been most excellent, and the results very gratifying.

Death has invaded the ranks of our workers during the year. Rev. J. W. Powell, missionary pastor of Georgetown church, has been called to his reward on high. He was a good man and an untiring worker. The Lord used him to greatly strengthen the Baptist cause in Georgetown. In the midst of his usefulness he was called home. He rests from his labors, and his works do follow him.

At the January meeting of our Board, the amounts recommended by the Convention to be raised for the different benevolent objects fostered by the Convention, were apportioned among the Associations. In making the apportionment three things were kept in view: numerical strength, financial ability and the degree of development in the grace of giving. The Board recommended to the Executive Committees of our Associations that they apportion the amount allotted to each Association among the churches of the same. We believe this was done in most cases.

At the annual meeting a brother who was deemed qualified for the position of a Sunday school field worker was elected. After some weeks of consideration, he declined the appointment. Other brethren who were believed to have qualifications for the work were sought out, but none of them were available.

It was not deemed necessary to elect an assistant to the Corresponding Secretary.

The work of the Board was mapped out on the basis of $20,000 in accordance with the vote of the Convention to raise that amount.

During the year 117 men and women have been in the employ of the Board for the whole or part of their time. Of these 99 have served as missionary pastors; 4 as missionaries and colporters; 6 as colporters; 1 as State evangelist; and 7 lady missionaries. They have occupied 171 stations in 33 of our 37 Associations. The results of their labors may be seen from the following:

SUMMARY OF WORK.

Missionaries and colporters employed, 117; stations occupied, 171; miles traveled, 36,307; sermons and addresses delivered, 6,669; prayer meetings held, 2,685; religious visits made, 28,624; conversions, 1,329; baptisms by our missionaries, 786; baptisms the results of the evangelist's labors, 227; total baptisms, 1,013; received by letter, 1,239; received by letter the result of the evangelist's labors, 136; total received by letter, 1,375; restored to fellowship, 84; restored to fellowship the result of the evangelist's labor, 28; total restored to fellowship, 112; total additions to the churches, 2,500; membership in mission churches, 9,243; Sunday Schools organized, 46; number of Sunday Schools at mission stations, 133; number of teachers and scholars, 8,467; contributions of Sunday Schools, $824.21; collected in mission churches for State missions, $1,144.79; for Home Missions, $310.06; for Foreign Missions, $150.57; for Orphanage, $514.74; for Ministerial Education, $92.34; for Aged and Infirm Ministers, $167.95.

When we consider that "there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth," what thanksgiving and praise should fill our hearts, when we see that God has used our State Missionaries for the conversion of 1,649 souls? There has been great joy in heaven, joy in the souls of those brought to Christ, and surely joy should fill our brethren and sisters who have contributed to the support of this work, by their prayers, labors and means.

CHURCHES ORGANIZED.

Another great proof of the good that our Board is accomplishing is seen in the fact that 14 churches have been organized this year. This is the largest number of organizations for a year in the history of the Board. They are as follows: Grendel Mills, Greenwood county; Jordiana, Oconee county; Youngs Island, Colleton county; Clear Water, Aiken county; Greelyville, Clarendon county; Cateechee, Pickens county; Watts' Mill, Laurens county; Woodruff Mills, Spartanburg county; Hopewell, Cherokee county; Mauldins, Greenville county; Arcadia, Spartanburg county; Gluck Mills, Anderson county; Long Branch, Sumter county; Rion, Fairfield county. May these 13 churches stand as lighthouses for Christ, warning of the dangers of sin, and lighting up the pathway of many to glory.

CHURCHES DEDICATED.

Seven new houses of worship have been built at stations where our missionaries are laboring: Newry, Oconee county; Black Mingo, Williamsburg county; Piney Forest, Williamsburg, county; Second church, Laurens, Laurens county; Greeleyville, Clarendon county; Reedy River Factory, Greenville county; Orrville, Anderson county; Mispah, Anderson county.

May each one of these be a temple of praise and prayer where God is honored.

Expended on church buildings at mission stations during the year, $12,759.45.

THE WORK AMONG MILL PEOPLE.

The Board has not been unmindful of the great opportunity for doing good among the 75,000 people in our manufacturing towns. Thirty-seven men and seven women are doing a telling work among the people connected with 54 mills. We have already 35 churches in these mill towns. The erection of each new factory points us to another field of usefulness. Some of the most prosperous and efficient churches in our State may be found in some of these mill towns. Closely connected with this work comes the report concerning

OUR LADY MISSIONARIES.

While our men in pursuance of their high calling are holding forth the Word of Life to the mill people, their efforts are being nobly seconded by the labors of our seven godly women. They can be found every day of the week going from house to house, ministering to the temporal as well as to the spiritual wants of the people. To many they are angels of mercy as like their Master they go about doing good. Our first lady missionary was put to work among these people in 1888. The number of these workers will soon be increased to ten. Would that we were able to have a lady missionary in every mill town in our State.

OUR STATE EVANGELIST.

The more we see of the work of Dr. Fitch, the more deeply we are impressed that the Board was divinely guided in selecting him for the important position which he holds. He has been instant in season and out of season, and the spirit of the Lord has been with him in all his efforts to win souls for Christ. In the 20 revival meetings that he has held God has given him 320 conversions as his hire. This is a glorious result and added to it who can estimate the faint hearted who have been encouraged, the weak who have been strengthened, the cold and indifferent who have been brought to a closer touch with the great, warm heart of God. The meetings held by our brother have been a benediction not only to the churches with which they have been held, but to the people of the community at large. The work this year has been quite largely among the feeble churches, yet he raised on the field for State Missions $814.27.

BIBLE AND COLPORTAGE WORK.

We never know what good we may be accomplishing when we place a good book in a home, or in the hands of an individual. Persons who have never been touched by hearing sermons have been reached through the reading of a good book or tract. It has been the earnest effort of the Board through the work of its colporters to place good reading matter in the homes of our people. With the means at our command we have done good work in this line. We have six brethren working exclusively as colporters, 4 others who coupled colportage work with their missionary labors. A number of pastors have been supplied with books to dispose of among their people. Three good colored brethren whom we have not reported as colporters, have sold a good many books among their people. The sales during the year amount to $3,107.80. While Scriptures have been donated to the value of $31.18. Tracts and pamphlets have been widely distributed over the State.

THE GOOD WORK OF OUR WOMEN.

We mention with gratitude the ever-increasing practical interest of the women in our churches in the evangelization of our State. It is impossible to calculate or measure the great good that they are accomplishing. Their sacrificing and untiring devotion to the good work is deserving of all praise. Their contributions for the support of the work have increased from $35.93 in 1885 to $2,533.51 in 1904.

The ladies of Greenville Association support Miss Jones; the Abbeville ladies, Miss Baker; the Saluda ladies, Miss Berger; the Spartanburg ladies, Miss Cummings; while the ladies of Pee Dee and Laurens Associations have each agreed to support one.

The special efforts for State Missions put forth by the Central Committee during September were eminently successful. The ladies raised over $1,000 during that month. God be praised for the zeal of our consecrated Baptist women.

OUR FINANCIAL CONDITION.

While we have not reached the expected goal, yet the receipts are gratifying. They exceed those of last year by about $2,000. The spirit of liberality is on the increase among our people. Most of the Associations have done well. A number of them have given above the amounts expected from them, and are entitled to a place on the "Honor Roll."

We shall need at least $2,500 by the first of January to enable us to settle up in full with our missionaries.

Let our brethren and sisters rally energetically and liberally to the evangelization of their own State, at the same time doing their very best for the regions outside of their own territory.

Z. T. CODY, President.

T. M. BAILEY, Corresponding Secretary.

Greenville, S. C., Nov. 26, 1904.

This is to certify that I have examined the account of Dr. T. M. Bailey, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer of the South Carolina State Convention, showing receipts and expenditures to the above date, and find the same correct and supported by proper vouchers.

W. W. KEYS, Acting Auditor S. C. B. S. C.

REPORT ON REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Your special committee to whom was referred the report on State Missions beg leave to make the following report:

We wish to lay especial emphasis upon the following gratifying facts: 1,013 baptisms reported; 2,500 additions to our mission churches; 13 churches organized; 7 houses of worship built; $3,107 worth of books sold by colporters; 46 Sunday Schools organized; $2,380 raised in mission churches for the objects fostered by our denomination; nearly $18,000 raised for the work of our State Missions. These facts are the occasion for profound gratitude to God for His blessings upon us during the year. These afford us an incentive for additional advance and emphasize the efficient worth and ability of our honored Secretary and his Board.

This committee deems the following suggestions worthy of the careful attention of the Convention:

1. We wish to express our entire confidence in the effort of the State Board to secure a Sunday School field worker, as authorized by our last Convention, and we urge the Board to keep this matter prominently before them; for we believe it to be a matter of the highest importance.

2. Your committee notes with pleasure the expressed intention of the Board to increase the number of lady missionaries. This department of our work has passed its experimental stage, and heartily commends itself to us as one of the greatest helps in solving the problems of our work among our mill people.

3. The results of the labors of our State Evangelist, Dr. Fitch, abundantly justify the wisdom of continuing this work. We note with approval the report of the fact that his labors have been largely confined to the weaker churches, and it is the opinion of your committee that his labors be strictly confined to the more needy fields.

4. We heartily commend the loyal support given to colportage work by our Secretary, Dr. Bailey, and recommend that all practicable steps be taken to enlarge this work.

5. We urge upon pastors the necessity of pressing the claims of State Missions so as to meet the threatened deficit at the expiration of this year.

6. We suggest that the Board consider the advisability of employing an assistant to our Corresponding Secretary.

Respectfully submitted.

B. J. QUATTLEBAUM,
L. M. RICE,
W. M. JONES,
J. R. MOORE,

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF CONNIE MAXWELL ORPHANAGE.

To the South Carolina Baptist State Convention, 1904:

This has been an annus mirabilis at Connie Maxwell Orphanage. The like has not been seen there before, nor is it likely that another year shall soon eclipse the one now brought to a close. The main feature of the year has been that of building. The brick and mortar used this year has almost, if not quite, equalled all that has been used in the entire preceding history of the institution. It will be understood that the greater portion of the money expended has been realized from the Maxwell Estate, which came into the hands of the Trustees early in the year. It was decided that none of this money should be spent in current support of the work, but that it should be expended only as actually needed for permanent improvement.

NEW BUILDINGS.

Since our last report to this Convention a new cottage for the foreman of the mechanical department has been erected near the Woods Building. A two room store house 20x40 feet has been built near the superintendent's home. This gives a long needed place for receiving and opening all boxes sent to the Orphanage. The goods that are not immediately needed are stored until necessity calls for them. The barn has been removed from its original position in the centre of the grounds, to a position near the woods in the rear of the Farmer's Home. It will be used for the work stock entirely. A new barn has been erected for the cows. It stands directly between Durst Home and the railroad. It accommodates our 18 milch cows and there is room for as many as 26. A small barn has been built at the Maxwell Farm, the need being imperative.

The Maxwell Building, provided for in the will of Dr. and Mrs. Maxwell, is nearly completed. Its cost will be about $12,000. The funds are supplied from the Maxwell Estate. The Maxwell Building, two stories in height, of red brick, contains eight school rooms 22x32 feet each, and also a parlor in which will hang oil paintings of Dr. Maxwell, Mrs. Maxwell and little Connie Maxwell. This house stands on the site formerly occupied by the barn, and takes up also part of the garden land.

The handsome Library Building in the centre of the grounds is the realization of the proposed plan of Mrs. McKissick, as outlined in our last report. The house is 26x48 feet, very ornate in appearance, containing an entry way, reading room and book room. It is of red brick and granite, beautiful within and without. It is known as the E. P. McKissick Memorial Library.

A splendid brick office was built last spring and paid for by Mr. John K. Durst, a member of our Board of Trustees. This handsome gift is in keeping with his steady devotion to Connie Maxwell Orphanage. The building contains a general office 20x20 feet, a private office for the superintendent, a store room for school supplies, medicine and the like, and a vault with wall 20 inches thick, with steel door and bank combination lock. It is a great boon to have such a need supplied as is afforded by this building. It is situated a few feet from the residence of the superintendent and is connected with same by a covered walkway.

FINANCIAL.

We are not able to report any material increase in contributions over last year.

The Convention at Sumter a year ago resolved to raise $15,000 for the Orphanage during the present year. We have received $12,982.20 in contributions. We are unable to account for the backward step thus taken, unless it be that the people have an idea that the Orphanage has now come into possession of the Maxwell Estate, and is not greatly in need of money. We take occasion to state clearly that the money that has been put into houses with the Maxwell legacy has greatly increased our expenses and in no wise diminished them. The houses built with the proceeds of a legacy entail a large annual expense for maintenance. We note with regret that the names of some of the largest churches in South Carolina do not appear upon the cash book during the year. We believe that a protest is justifiable when our churches leave the work of our great Orphanage to be looked after by the Sunday Schools and women's societies.

MERCHANDISE.

Gifts of merchandise have come to the Orphanage from many individuals, churches, Sunday Schools and societies. It is estimated that $1,563.15 was sent in clothing and dry goods, and $1,354.95 in provisions making a total of $2,918.10 in gifts of this character.

THE MAXWELL FARM

Has yielded good profit this year. It furnished the Orphanage with 400 cords wood, 450 bushels corn, 500 bales stover and peavine hay, 500 bushels oats, 84 bushels wheat, 75 bushels peas; melons, potatoes, beef, pork and turnips. Its value to the Orphanage for the year was several hundred dollars above the expenses.

WORK DAY.

Following the instructions of the Convention last year our superintendent appointed another work day this fall. It has been a very great success. The amount realized in cash has been $1,493.99 as against about $700 last year. It seems that the plan was carried out easily in most places and even enthusiastically in some. The day observed was Saturday, October 1. It appears that this should now be regarded as an annual feature.

THE PRESENT PRESSING NEED.

We have had considerable anxiety on account of the scarcity of water and the low depth of some of the wells, some of which have gone dry. The scourge of typhoid fever in the Orphanage of our North Carolina brethren, the months of nursing, care and expense, and the number of deaths among the children should warn us in time. We should be wise and forestall such trouble, if possible. There is one method, and evidently only one that will bring sure and permanent relief. That method though costly, may prove the cheapest in the end. A deep well of say 350 feet, sunk through granite, would give an abundant and unfailing supply for all time, the water would be absolutely pure and safe, and there would be no annual expense involved. The large family now resident at the Orphanage makes it a questionable matter as to whether we can afford longer to risk the use of a surface water supply.

The need is evident, but your Board is unable at present to suggest a means whereby the need may be met. The attention of the Convention is called to this important problem in the hope that some member or some good friend may be moved to contribute the cost, or even one-half the cost. It is probable that the cost of well, piping, pump, and needed equipment would be at least $2,000 and likely more. One point seems sure; the current receipts will not justify an attempt to undertake such a task as a part of the regular work for the year. The sure and regular expenses are now too great.

APPORTIONMENTS.

The following Associations have paid in full their apportionments for the year: Abbeville, Edgefield, Pickens and Saluda.

INVENTORY OF PROPERTY.

In order that all the people may know just how much property we now possess we present the following exhibit, which is as nearly accurate as we can make it, in view of the fact that the Maxwell Building is only partially complete, and the stock in banks and mills will for the most part, go to meet the cost of said house. The money reported by the treasurer as having been borrowed out of bank is offset by these holdings. Finance Committee was instructed at last Board meeting in July to sell off stock, but has been awaiting more favorable offers. The stock yields dividends that about equal the interest paid in bank.

IN GENERAL.

There are at present 155 children at the Orphanage, the capacity being 160. Their ages vary from three to sixteen years. Several have gone out during the year having secured approved positions. The Orphanage Sunday School has been regularly kept up, 18 of the officers teaching as many classes. Regular Bible study is kept up in the school every day. The internal machinery at the Orphanage runs smoothly, and we believe as few jars have occurred as could be expected in so large a family. Some sickness caused anxiety during January and February last, but none of a serious nature has developed since. There has not been a death among the children since January, 1896, nearly nine years. Surely this is a remarkable record.

IN MEMORIAM.

The reaper has spared all the children this year, but he came very near them and took away one of their fond and devoted teachers. On January 24, Mrs. Nannie Wroe Carpenter fell a victim to disease and went to her home in heaven. For about five years she had worked at the Orphanage. Her life was full of sunshine and blessedness. She was a devoted teacher and loved the Orphanage and its children. With sorrow for her removal from this field of labor we express sincere gratitude for her service and activity and our appreciation of her many charming qualities of head and heart.

Greenwood, S. C., Nov. 29, 1904.

I have examined the books, accounts and vouchers of Rev. A. T. Jamison, Superintendent and Treasurer of Connie Maxwell Orphanage, for the fiscal year ending November 29, 1904, and find the same to be correct. The books are kept in a neat and careful manner.

A. G. YOUNGBLOOD, Auditor Pro. Tem.

REPORT ON REPORT OF ORPHANAGE.

Your committee, after a careful study of the report of the Trustees of the Orphanage, are impressed with nothing connected with it quite so much as with the evidence it furnishes of the business sagacity and ability of the Board and its chief executive officer, the Superintendent. The Convention ought to receive heartiest congratulations because of the unusual efficiency of the Trustees selected by it for the management of this blessed and Christian work, and it is not too much to say that our Superintendent seems to have been called to the kingdom for such a time and work as this.

Several things in the report deserve especial notice. One thing we confess fills us with painful surprise. The report says: "We note with regret that the names of some of the largest churches in South Carolina do not appear upon the cash book during the year." This reveals, as it seems to your committee, a woeful lack of appreciation of the importance and place of this work in the divine economy. This means that, during the past twelve months, the claims of the Orphanage were not presented at all to some of the people upon whom ought to rest most heavily the obligation for its support, and that in these churches the care of this work so near the heart of the Master was turned over entirely to women and children.

Your committee feel that the need for an adequate and wholesome water supply is one of great moment. We have been unable to determine what ought to be done, and are not prepared to make any suggestion as to how this lack can be supplied, but if some of the men in this Convention whom the Lord has so wonderfully blessed with "the abundance of things" would feel moved and yield to the impulse to give the needed money, surely the Master, whose thirst is quenched by the cup of cold water given in his name, would look with especial favor upon such a gift.

The marked increase of gifts to many of the enterprises fostered by this Convention is a matter which ought to stir our hearts with profoundest gratitude to Almighty God, but it is not pleasant to record that the Orphanage has not been benefitted, to any appreciable extent, by this forward movement; the increase in contributions to this institution amounting during the past year to only about $80.00. Your committee is of the opinion that current expenses ought to be met by the contributions of the churches, and that, as far as possible, all sums realized from bequests, unless otherwise designated, ought to be held in reserve for extraordinary demands, such as the erection of new buildings and the enlargement of equipment. Only four Associations in the State have paid in full their apportionments, and many of them have fallen far behind. Several of the strongest have given only a little over one-half of what they were asked to give.

Respectfully submitted.

W. S. DORSET, For Com.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

We are truly glad to report that we have been able to carry forward the work entrusted to us. While the sum put at our disposal has been small, no worthy student has been sent away for want of help. We are at this moment out of debt, but have no funds in hand to meet the board bills and other current expenses of our beneficiaries.

The plan adopted three years ago is working well. According to this plan no student is received as beneficiary unless he is endorsed by his church through the pastor and deacons, and by his Association through the executive committee; and though thus endorsed he is not matriculated without recommendation of the local committee of the Board of Ministerial Education; nor is he continued even then longer than his class standing and conduct warrant.

According to former plans money was given to ministerial students to meet their wants; now only tuition is given, and that from a fund long ago donated for this purpose; but for other necessary expenses money is loaned them, without interest for five years. If not paid within that time interest is charged at regular rate. The treasurer has now in hand notes amounting to $2,486.47, exclusive of this year. No doubt some money will be lost through deaths of students and otherwise, yet we hope in the course of a few years to have a sufficient fund from which we may meet the needs of all who may come, though some of them may not be ministerial students. Such a fund would be of immense benefit to Furman in competing with schools where free tuition is given.

We assisted nineteen men last session to the extent of $1,930, an average of about one hundred dollars per man, including tuition of fifty dollars apiece. Of these, six graduated, one of them securing the honors of his class. Eight have discontinued their course, some of them finally; others will, perhaps, return later. One intends going as a missionary to China; one, a very devout and promising young man, Edwin Ballentine, of Laurens, S. C., died. There are eight still with us, all of whom hope to graduate.

We have this year only eleven, ten of whom we promised to help in the sum of $921, including tuition, an average of about $92 apiece. There are thus far this session only three new men. I find on special inquiry that the class standing of our men is well up to the average, some of them above, save one, who is represented as "feeble," yet with this qualifying statement, "that his early advantages have not been good." There is no criticism of the moral standing of these men.

We would not discuss the report in the report, but would call especial attention to the decreasing number of ministerial students in Furman University. Out of the 104,000 Baptists in our State, only three seeking to educate themselves for the ministry in the usual way, and should many apply according to present showing we would not be able to help them; and all this when Furman University was established for this very purpose. It seems that we have succeeded in creating a demand for an educated ministry we are unable and unwilling to meet. Why have we no more ministerial students at Furman? is a timely question and one of great importance to this Convention. We have not the men to meet the increasing demands of our churches. Now, what of the future? Your Board, therefore, entreats you—

1. To pray the Lord of the harvest to thrust out more laborers into the harvest.
2. To put sufficient funds in our hands with which to do the work entrusted to our care. And
3. To see that this great and good cause is represented at our Associations, Unions and churches.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON REPORT OF BOARD OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

Your special committee has examined the report of Ministerial Education and find reason for thanksgiving to God for the showing made by the Board, and desire to commend the wisdom, prudence, and energy of the officers of the Board and also to bear testimony to the commendable way in which the affairs of the Board have been managed.

We are glad to note that along with the progress of our other work there has been gradual growth in this direction. But we feel that this Board does not hold the place in the affections of our people of which it is worthy, and therefore recommend that pastors and churches put this Board on equality with other departments of our work and arrange for regular contributions thereto. We would call special attention to two facts mentioned in the report:

1. An empty treasury wherewith to meet the demands of the ten beneficiaries now looking to us for help.
2. A decrease in the number of students.

We therefore recommend—

- 1st. That pastors and people see to it that at an early day sufficient funds shall be turned into the treasury to meet this immediate need, and to pray the Lord of the harvest that He may send forth more laborers into the harvest.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF AGED MINISTERS' RELIEF BOARD.

The day has passed when a report of any kind before this Convention can assume the form of a labored and prolonged essay. There may have been a time when all reports sent forth were read by the masses, but the world's life is now too strenuous, and good literature is too cheap for us even to hope that much time will be given to the reading of these printed papers which make up so large a part of our Minutes. We who write them are the rather preparing material for the historian and antiquarian of the far-away years which are yet to come.

Our Board has been aiding thirty-eight beneficiaries during this year, twenty women and eighteen men. Four of our beneficiaries have died, viz.: Brethren Carter, Sawyer and Thomason and Sister Jane Hutchins. Six new beneficiaries have been enrolled who more than fill the places of the four who died, viz.: Brethren Littleton, Kelley, Joyner and Getsinger, and Sisters Jordan and Kirton.

We have received from the churches $3,045.58; last year our income from the same source was $3,238.55.

The bequest of Mrs. Pressley cannot be utilized for a year to come. When it does come to us, we purpose to hold and use it as the nucleus of an invested fund, only using the interest from year to year, and hoping to be able to add to it from time to time. Two or three friends have said during the year that it was their purpose to remember this Board in their wills. This being the case, would it not be wise for the Convention to authorize the Board to become a corporate body?

In order to give an idea of what the South Carolina churches are doing in this work as compared with a similar work in the other States, we have prepared a table of facts as follows:

Maryland—5 female beneficiaries, $105 each; $637.00 raised.

Florida—10 male beneficiaries, $33 each; $338.00 raised.

Virginia—67 beneficiaries, 26 male, 41 female, $70 each; $4,203.00 raised.

North Carolina—23 beneficiaries, 10 male, 13 female, $42 each; $1,045.00 raised.

Texas—50 beneficiaries, 30 male, 20 female, $55 each; $2,602.27 raised.

Tennessee—9 beneficiaries, 7 male, 2 female, $70 each; $700.00 raised.

Georgia—52 beneficiaries, 36 male, 16 female, $60 each; $3,000.00 raised.

South Carolina—36 beneficiaries, 17 male, 19 female, $77 each; $3,238.55 raised.

At the meeting of the General Association of Virginia, in 1903, Prof. R. E. Gaines, of Richmond College, delivered an address upon the subject now before us, from which we quote the following:

"Let me state again the point I am trying to make. (1) The doctrine that those who preach the gospel shall be supported by the churches is divinely ordained. (2) We do not attempt to compensate them for their services, but simply give them a support. (3) In other callings men receive their income in the productive period of life and lay by a part of it for old age, but in the case of our preachers we insist upon holding their support in reserve and giving it to them along as they need it. (4) While many preachers die in the midst of their service, it often happens that one's preaching is over a little before the end comes—before he has drawn quite all of his rations—so that he frequently fulfills his part of the contract before we have fully discharged our side of it. Indeed, the reverse cannot happen, for the only way in which a man ceases to need support is to die or get rich, and in either case he quits preaching. (5) For us to cut off the support of a preacher who has become disabled is a flagrant violation of a most sacred contract.

It seems plain, therefore, that a man who does not believe in this fund for disabled preachers does not believe in the doctrine of the support of the active ministry; that is, he is a Hardshell, whether he admits it or not.

Why is it, my brother laymen, that God has arranged this matter so that we can break faith with these self-sacrificing servants of the Most High and leave them to suffer after they have fully discharged their part of the contract? I suppose it is to test us—to show what sort of stuff we are made of. He says to us: 'Your putting on a pious air and talking about the final perseverance of the saints, heavenly recognition, and the like, is all right, but in the meantime let's see what you know about common honesty down here in this present life.' "

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON REPORT OF AGED MINISTERS' BOARD.

Your committee find that work for the relief of aged ministers or their widows is being prosecuted with interest and wisdom. But we note that the funds received by the Board this year is less by nearly two hundred dollars than last year. We recommend that the friends shall be more thoughtful and liberal in the coming year toward this worthy object.

We recommend also that the Board take steps to become a corporate body, so that it may legally receive and manage money or property designated in wills or otherwise.

Respectfully submitted.

A. C. WILKINS,
For the Committee.

REPORT OF CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF WOMAN'S MISSION SOCIETIES.

With this year 1904, we close our thirtieth year of work as a Central Committee for Woman's Mission Work. We return hearty thanks to the Convention for their cordial support and co-operation; and their endorsement of the Committee since the first recognition of our work as part of the work of the Convention in 1876.

The work of the past year shows growth. Bright prospects in some Associations which have been slow to take hold of the work have cheered our hearts. We report 343 Woman's Societies and 112 Bands, contributing a total of $11,013.03, of which $159.47 was used for expenses. The amount for Foreign Missions is $5,591.48; for Home Missions, $2,840.45; for State Missions, $2,267.96; for the Bible Fund of the Sunday School Board, $153.67.

As there were special offerings for Foreign and Home Missions, in 1893, the Committee suggested that there be a special offering for State Missions also, which was carried out and has resulted in a large increase in the gifts for State Missions, but not as great as we could desire. Our effort has been to place our own State Mission work on the same level as that of Home Missions in the endeavors and affections of our women, but as yet this aim has not been reached. The boxes to Home Missionaries for the past year were valued at $1,453.00, making the contributions to Home Missions largely in excess.

In 1900 your Committee endeavored to use the New Century Movement to call the attention of the Societies to the need for an advance movement, in securing new members and organizing new Societies, and pressed the value of a definite aim. In 1901, at Dr. Bailey's suggestion, our women at their meeting at Florence assumed the support of another lady missionary in our State, the second one appointed, and now the number has been increased to eight. The same year, at the request of ladies of the Saluda Association for a definite object, the Committee suggested raising enough money for the support of a Foreign Missionary. The ladies of Abbeville Association adopted this suggestion also. The plan of apportionment for all the Associations was the next step proposed by the Committee and adopted by the ladies, and a rapid advance is the result.

For ten years this Committee worked for Foreign Missions only, beginning to work for Home and State Missions in 1885. During these thirty years the amount raised for missions exclusive of expenses is $126,592.40; for Foreign Missions, $89,486.50; for Home Missions, $23,177.87; for State Missions, $13,586.73; for the Sunday School Board, $341.30. We have limited our report to the actual money passing through our hands, that our reports might be clear, easily understood by all, and that there might not be a double reporting of the same money. We have been criticized for this, but it has seemed to us to be for the interests of the work up to this time. The time may have come for a change in this plan, and we are not averse to it. It has seemed to the Committee for some time that it might be well for the Woman's Committee to deal only with reports, if such a plan could be arranged without detriment to the work.

By the action of the Convention in Sumter in 1903, and by the action of the Woman's Missionary Union in Laurens in 1904, this report closes our work as a committee of your body.

Again we thank you for your courtesy and support, and trust that through your counsels and with your aid the woman's work for Christ's cause of saving and uplifting human souls will go on with increasing power and enthusiasm as the years go by.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee.

Miss M. L. COKER, President.

Mrs. JOHN STOUT, Cor. Sec. and Treas.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION AUXILIARY TO SOUTH CAROLINA BAPTIST CONVENTION.

The Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to South Carolina Baptist Convention sends greeting to the Convention and begs to submit this report:

As an expression of appreciation for the consideration shown the Union by the Convention of last year, in passing a resolution allowing the Union to elect its own officers, the following resolution was adopted at the recent meeting of the Union held in Laurens, November 8-11:

RESOLUTION.

Whereas, this body, the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the South Carolina Baptist Convention, is not independent, but is auxiliary to the South Carolina Baptist Convention, and desires that the relation between the two shall be close and cordial—

And, whereas, the double relation, hitherto existing between our Central Committee and the State Convention on the one hand, and the Woman's Missionary Union on the other, seemed unwise, therefore be it

Resolved, That we most heartily thank the Convention for unanimously passing a resolution at its last session granting this body the privilege of electing its own officers.

Further, That we feel responsible to the Convention and pledge them our hearty endeavor to carry forward the work of enlisting and training the women and children of our churches for the Master's service in spreading the gospel throughout the world.

The annual meeting of the Union was full of enthusiasm and the manifested presence of God.

We found that since the organization of the Union, two years ago in Greenville, great increase has been made in contributions and in the development of the workers. The following figures from the Treasurer's report are significant: Increase in contributions from 1900 to 1901, $276.84; from 1901 to 1902, $130.15. The Union was organized in December, 1902. The increase from 1902 to 1903, $2,259.57; from 1903 to 1904, more than $1,900.00.

The constitution of the Union was so changed as to provide for the election of all the officers.

Mrs. John Stout and Miss M. L. Coker, who have served us with faithfulness and ability through so many years of the history of Woman's Work in South Carolina, were unanimously re-elected to the office of Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer and Recording Secretary and were urged by a standing vote to accept them, but they declined.

The following were then elected as officers for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Anderson.

First Vice President—Mrs. C. E. Watson, Greenville.

Second Vice President—Mrs. M. B. Clinkscales, Due West.

Third Vice President—Mrs. C. L. C. Rush, Creston.

Fourth Vice President—Miss Isla McKenzie, Dillon.

Fifth Vice President—Mrs. J. T. Gantt, Columbia.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. A. L. Crutchfield, Spartanburg.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. E. A. McDowell, Ninety Six.

Treasurer—Mrs. Beattie Rowland, Greenville.

Auditor—Mrs. C. H. Roper, Laurens.

Band Superintendent—Miss E. Y. Hyde, Charleston.

These officers form an Executive Committee to take the oversight of the work.

Two new plans have been adopted. One is that Societies co-operating with the Union can, after January 1st, 1905, send to the Treasurer of the Union either their contributions or duplicate receipts showing the amount of their contributions.

Another looks toward providing a separate Expense Fund that nothing may be taken from contributions to Missions for expenses.

We beg the good will and co-operation of the pastors of our State, and we pledge this Convention our hearty support of all its work.

The Union would be glad to have recommendations from this body just as the W. M. U. Aux. S. B. C. works under recommendations from the three Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON REPORT OF WOMAN'S WORK.

The Baptist women of our State Convention Auxiliary have made remarkable progress during the past year. The recent convention at Laurens was one of the most enthusiastic ever held among South Carolina Baptists, there being 175 delegates present. The Woman's Work, the Young Ladies' and Sunbeam features are, by bringing into the Master's service once dormant talents, moving, proportionately faster, than the men to our forward movement. The young ladies are now supporting Miss Lura Stump as missionary among the Osage Indians of Oklahoma. A place for every one and every one in her place seems to be their motto. To this end they have divided the State into five districts, each having a Vice President from that section, who is certainly interesting the sisters of our denomination in the Master's vineyard, as co-laborers with our organized work.

This auxiliary movement has been in existence only two years, yet the increase in giving is as follows: for 1902 and 1903 $2,259.57 as against $276.81 for 1900 to 1901; and $1,900 plus $600 Christmas offering for 1903 to 1904, as against $130.15 in 1901 to 1902. Truly a remarkable growth.

The women are not separated from our State Convention. Their reports show their longing desire to be in close touch with our work. They are, what they wish to be, an auxiliary organization, separated from us only in time of meeting, and that because of the growing size of our State Convention.

It seems eminently proper, in view of the very efficiency of our sisters remarkable progress, that we express, in the adoption of this report, our hearty approbation of all they have done, trusting that the Lord will so abundantly bless them in this coming year that at our next Convention we may hear even better things, if possible, than this.

Respectfully submitted.

E. M. LIGHTFOOT,
F. N. K. BAILEY,
J. D. PITTS,
RUFUS FORD.
R. N. PRATT.

RESOLUTION.

Resolved, That the appreciation of this Convention be expressed to Mrs. John Stout and Miss Mary L. Coker for the great service they have rendered in the past in promoting our woman's work.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Your Committee on Education begs leave to report as follows:

Never before in the history of South Carolina have the people been more alive to the cause of education. For the past ten years a thorough canvass throughout the State has been made by the representatives of our high schools and colleges and this work has resulted in much good by awakening a general interest in education. There are 104,000 Baptists in South Carolina and 9-10 of these Baptists patronize only the public schools. This being the case, isn't it our duty as Christians to see to it that everything possible is done to improve and better the condition of these public schools, and, as far as possible, to see that Christian teachers are placed in charge of them?

Mr. Thos. Jefferson, the founder of the University of Virginia, left as his written opinion, that if there should be any choice between the education of the few in the University and of the many in the primary schools, the welfare of the primary schools should take precedence over that of the University; that it is of more consequence to the nation that all of the people should have some education, than that some people should be altogether educated; that it is indeed a matter of necessity in a democratic government, looking as it does to the intelligent support of individual citizens, a matter of more vital consequence that all men should be educated in at least some fundamental principles, than that a few should have a high education.

We heartily commend to the denomination the continued and liberal support of the Baptist colleges and schools in the State. Furman University is better equipped to do its work than it has ever been. So far the payments of the notes to the Endowment Fund are very gratifying, $5,000 to $6,000 more having been paid in than was due. Our new President is fast winning the way into the affections of the people; very desirable additions have been made to the Faculty in Professors Steele and Bradshaw; the student attendance is gratifying and of a high class. But our Baptists are full able to do far more for this institution than they have done, many improvements in equipment are yet needed, and should be had.

The Greenville Female College is in better condition than ever before in its history, the student attendance is overflowing, and this proves the great need of a new building. There should be four times as many Baptist girls in college in South Carolina as are, and they can be had if we will provide for them and go out after them. Dr. E. C. James, the President, is proving himself to be the right man in the right place.

We rejoice in the continued success of Limestone College, Welsh Neck

High School and Orangeburg Institute. These institutions are not owned by the Convention, but are under Baptist influence.

It is with pleasure that we call attention to the good work that is being done for the colored people at Benedict College, under the presidency of Dr. Osborn. This institution is owned and operated by Baptists.

We are glad that higher education is not being neglected, but we regret that so little is being done for the large number of boys and girls who will never be able to attend college. Let us foster the common schools and make them better. Brethren, we should not be satisfied until by united efforts, we have succeeded in establishing a perfect system of free schools throughout our State. For, after all, these schools are the most important schools for the masses of our people, and the success of the colleges depends greatly upon their efficiency.

Respectfully submitted.

F. N. K. BAILEY, Chair. Com.

REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF FURMAN UNIVERSITY.

The Board of Trustees of Furman University would respectfully report:

First. That this Board has requested Dr. Poteat, the President of the University, to address the Convention along the line of his report to this Board, and to lay before the Convention full information as to the needs and prospects of the University.

Second. That this Board would warmly commend the denomination for effort to provide a fund for current expenses, and would earnestly urge that the effort be continued to provide annually a fund sufficient to supplement the income of the institution. The members of your Board believe that the best interests of the University will be subserved by a close connection between the University and the churches, and that the churches should put the University on their lists of objects of stated benevolence.

Third. The Board would further report that they are encouraged by the collections which have been made upon the pledges for new endowment. The prospects now are that the sum of at least $125,000 will be realized from that source.

Fourth. The Board would further report that it having come to the attention of the Board that the salaries of the professors have not heretofore been promptly paid, this Board adopted a resolution instructing its Treasurer to borrow from time to time money sufficient to pay all salaries promptly at the end of every month. The necessity for this would be obviated if the churches would promptly raise annually a fund of at least $5,000 to supplement the current expenses.

In conclusion, this Board would earnestly commend the President of the University to the denomination. The zeal and unselfish devotion and eminent ability which he has shown during the past year in his work on our behalf should endear him to the hearts of all of us.

December 1st, 1904.

To the Board of Trustees of Furman University and Greenville Female College.

Your Committee, to whom the report of the President of the Greenville Female College was referred, beg to submit the following as to the recommendations of the President:

That the Board employ some suitable man, to take the field, to raise during the year 1905, in cash contributions, for the enlargement and equipment of the present plant, and the erection of a new building at the Greenville Female College, from $20,000 to $25,000.

We recommend that as soon as $8,000 is collected, that the Executive Committee is hereby authorized to begin the erection of the proposed new dormitory, and to proceed with the work of enlargement from time to time as the funds are received sufficient to pay for same.

That the Board is highly gratified over the successful administration of Dr. James, the President of the College, and wishes to congratulate both the denomination and Dr. James upon the growth and excellency of the school.

The demand for an additional building and more equipment at the Greenville Female College is the most pressing educational need before the Convention at this time.

Respectfully submitted by Committee.

LETTER FROM PROFESSOR C. H. JUDSON.

Greenville, S. C., November 26th, 1904

Rev. D. W. Key, Chester, S. C.

My Dear Brother: Nearly a year ago, you, with Brethren Cody and Langston, were pleased to honor me with the presentation of a copy of resolutions adopted by the South Carolina Baptist State Convention; and I now wish to express, through you, to the brethren of the Convention, my sincere gratitude for the many tokens of their confidence and regard in years gone by, and more especially for the very complimentary distinction shown me at the meeting in Sumter last year. While appreciating very highly any indications of esteem from my brethren, many of whom were once my pupils, I feel that my indebtedness to members of the Convention vastly exceeds aught they can owe to me.

It was in November, 1851, I first looked in upon this Convention, then meeting with the old Welsh Neck church at Society Hill. This meeting was memorable in several respects. The venerable Dr. Wm. B. Johnson, who had been elected President for twenty-five successive years, was in the chair. As I sat in the gallery, a stranger to everybody in the assembly, suddenly I observed a commotion in the house. The countenances of the audience brightened up as when the sunlight flashes out from a dark cloud.

A young man, tall, dignified, graceful, had just entered the door, and as he was walking up the aisle, I turned to a lady sitting near me and ventured to ask, "Who is that?" "Why," said she, "that is our former pastor, Brother James C. Furman." He took his seat at the desk as Secretary of the Convention. His nephew, Rev. R. Furman, was then pastor of the Welsh Neck church. It was at this meeting I first met the Furmans, the Edwardses, the Dargans, the Lides, the Pressleys, and other large-souled men of Darlington District.

As the names of the Associations were called four delegates answered from Charleston, and one of them was James P. Boyce, just graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary. Four delegates were present; ten absent. Savannah River, no delegates. Edgefield, two present, W. B. Johnson, Z. Watkins, ever faithful and true; sixteen absent. Welsh Neck, fourteen; all present. Salem, J. C. Furman, L. C. Hinton, present. Tiger River, three present; eight absent. Moriah, none. Reedy River, one present; four absent. Saluda, none. The Saluda had joined the Convention the previous year. From all the Associations, except the Welsh Neck, there were about twelve delegates present.

At this meeting the charter of Furman University was accepted and the University was thereby established. One young man was elected professor of mathematics and physical science; a very small beginning for a University. Professors Furman, Edwards and Mims were still in the Furman Institution. It was at this meeting that fifteen generous brethren gave their notes for a thousand ($1,000) dollars each to complete the seventy thousand ($70,000) endowment. It was also at this meeting that a special committee reported on the practicability and expediency of enlarging the sphere of the operations of the Convention. The "little interest in the meetings and the meagre attendance" were deplored, and it was resolved that the "Convention become a more thoroughly missionary body without abating its wonted zeal or relaxing its exertions for education."

Has this Convention kept pace with the rapidly increasing prosperity of the State during the last quarter of a century? Within fifty miles of Greenville there have arisen seventy-five cotton mills, with some 60,000 looms and over 2,000,000 spindles, involving a capital of over twenty-nine million dollars ($29,000,000). Has one sixtieth of this sum been expended in education?

As I became more intimately associated with members of the University Board of Trustees, I became more hopeful of great results in the near future. Of these men, I readily recall the genial, social, scholarly Dr. Thomas Curtis; a man of encyclopedic learning, whose useful life suddenly went out in a burning steamer in 1858; the generous, liberal minded Lawtons; the polished and classic scholars Brantly and Winkler; the wise, business-like O'Neill; Pressley, James Tupper, John G. Landrum, Wm. Thayer, J. A. W. Thomas, Thomas P. Smith, and B. W. Edwards, whose grand characters and useful lives have left an indelible impress on my own life and character as well as on scores of others.

I must add to these the names of that heroic band of the Seminary;

Boyce, Broadus, Manly, Williams, whose pure altruistic, consecrated lives have moulded the characters and stamped the destinies of hundreds of young men.

May the great objects for which these men prayed and toiled engage the attention of the brethren meeting in Chester, and may the grace of God crown with success all their efforts for spreading the Gospel of His Son, and for discipling the nations of the earth.

Very truly yours,

C. H. JUDSON.

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

With hearts full of gratitude to God we report the onward march of Christianity on our Foreign Fields. God hears the prayers of His people and honors their sacrifices. He moves their hearts to enlarge their efforts while He in greater proportion increases His blessings upon their labors. Truly He is good and His mercies past finding out.

Our Father looked down upon this world, there was no eye to pity, no arm to save from darkness and sin. His great heart was moved. He loved the world so much that He gave His blessed Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have eternal life. Man has broken the law, but "Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." But "how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach except they be sent?" This great question that burdened the great soul of the great apostle has in these latter days aroused the Christian world, and there are now 15,000 missionaries on the Foreign Fields and 79,000 native assistants, a force in all of 94,000 workers, while at home the churches are praying and giving as never before. Truly it does seem that the kingdoms of this world are to become the kingdoms of our Lord, the Christ, though the barriers are not yet all removed and never will be so long as there remain ignorance, superstition, and wickedness in heathen lands, and selfishness, negligence, and lack of consecration in our own land. Satan is not dead and he is opposed to missions.

But the work moves grandly on. For seven successive years our Foreign Mission Board has reported "all expenses paid and no debt." The amount reported by the Board to the Convention in Nashville last May, as the receipts for the preceding year, was $247,629.69. Of this amount South Carolina gave $19,738.54. We had on the Foreign Field the first of last May 138 missionaries and 215 native helpers—a force of 353—and there were reported 2,076 baptisms. We gave last year $29,117.30 more than ever before and God gave us 286 more baptisms than ever before. The churches everywhere are waking up as never before on the great subject of giving the Gospel of Christ to all the world. Many churches are giving the support of one or more missionaries, some Associations are giving the support of a missionary, and even individuals are giving sufficient to pay the salary of a missionary on the Foreign Field.

Realizing the increasing spirit of liberality on the part of the churches and recognizing the increase of God's blessings upon the work, the Convention in Nashville resolved to move forward, and so instructed the Foreign Mission Board, in Richmond, to project its work this year upon a basis of 25 per cent. advance over last year. The Board acting in accordance with these instructions, has already sent out, since the Convention, more than thirty new missionaries and several others are under appointment and will soon go to their fields of labor. The harvest truly is plenteous and we should pray for yet others to go.

There are two things which should especially encourage us all:

1. The manifest blessing of God on all we have done. In 1898 we had a force of foreign and native workers of 193, 102 churches, we gave that year $124,249.99 and reported 701 baptisms. Last year we had 353 workers, 180 churches, we gave $247,629.62, and received 2,076 by baptism. So while we have doubled our contributions and force of workers God has trebled the number of souls added to the churches within seven years.

2. The fact that our very strongest and best equipped young men and women are offering themselves for the work, even some of our strongest pastors are going.

OUR MISSIONS.

We have missions in China, Africa, Brazil, Mexico, Japan, Italy, and Argentina.

While the climate in some of these countries is severe, we are grateful to God, and Praise Him, for His marvelous watchcare over the health of our faithful missionaries. During the past year only two had to give up their work on account of ill health and two died. We mourn the loss of these faithful workers, but rejoice that the Lord is calling others to take their places.

EXPENSES.

Our Foreign Mission Board is composed of twenty one members who are elected annually by our Southern Baptist Convention. Only three members of this Board receive any pay for their work. The Corresponding Secretary and Assistant Corresponding Secretary are paid for all their time and the Treasurer for a part of his time. The other members not only give much time to the work, but give largely of their money.

The expense account of the Board for the year 1903 and 1904, including salaries, rents, traveling, printing, etc., etc., and also including the expenses of the W. M. Union, was six cents on the dollar. In addition to this many of the States charge for collecting, and hence the total expense amounted to about ten cents on the dollar—ninety cents on every dollar contributed going directly to the missionaries. As our gifts increase, our expenses will decrease.

LITERATURE.

Our Board publishes a large supply of tracts which are furnished free to any who applies for them. A systematic distribution of these followed by a like distribution of envelopes, which the Board also furnishes free, for Foreign Mission collections, would almost certainly increase the amounts raised by most of the churches.

The Foreign Mission Journal is published by the Board for 35 cents for a single subscriber or 25 cents in clubs of ten or more for each subscriber.

The denominational papers have done and are still doing an untold amount of good in keeping the great subject of missions ever before the people. Eternity alone can estimate the good they have done, or reveal the reward they shall receive for it.

We wish here to record our grateful acknowledgment of the faithful work of our noble women, who raised last year $47,777.82. In the raising of this amount our South Carolina women occupy the third place, having been surpassed only by Virginia and Georgia.

The place we shall occupy in the great forward move which our Southern Convention has so enthusiastically decided upon, remains to be seen, but South Carolina will doubtless march with the advance column. We have sent in nearly $9,000 since the first of last May, and we should not fall below $25,000 for this year.

Respectfully submitted.

C. M. BILLINGS, For Com.

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

The work of the Home Mission Board is so deep, so high, so broad, and so long, that it touches vitally many of the problems of modern history and many of the questions of the most advanced science. The territory which it occupies is, at present, more than ever before, for various reasons, receiving the attention of the most thoughtful and progressive people of the world. Its progress, its undeveloped resources, its varied soil, its climate, its mines, its factories, its agricultural products, its healthfulness, its noble people, make it more and more desirable as a place of residence, a field in which to invest capital, and a resort for those who desire an ideal atmosphere during the winter months. Indifference, misrepresentation, and positive falsification about the South have had their day. The truth is being well established in all the world about this glorious land and in the white light of publicity we have reason to be thankful for the past, to rejoice in the present, and to be full of hope with regard to the future.

The Board is trying to adjust itself and its work wisely to every new situation and to come successfully in contact with its environment at every point. In doing this the wisest are not wise enough, the strongest are not strong enough, and the most spiritual are not spiritual enough. The Board in trying to reach the vast mountain population partly by means of schools comes in contact with the science of popular education; in trying to reach out a helping hand to those who come to our shores from foreign lands, it deals with the momentous fact of immigration; in aiding churches and missions in some of our large and rapidly growing cities it deals with the intricate problem of the city of the twentieth century; in trying to reach the many operatives in the many mines and factories it comes in contact with every phase of the industrial South; and when in prudence, in wisdom, and in the spirit of Christ it puts forth an effort to reach the negro with the pure gospel, it deals with the race question, the storm centre of the South and the deepest question in Sociology. In trying to strengthen and fortify every place in its territory it is sagaciously preparing for that mighty change which is coming over this country when the Panama canal will produce such a commercial revolution here as no country ever witnessed before and of these vast movements both as to bane and blessing the South will be the largest recipient.

In doing its own work faithfully the Home Board is making a firm and inexhaustible basis of supplies for Foreign Mission work, so that a dollar given to this Board is also, in the aggregate, a dollar, five dollars, ten dollars, given really to Foreign Missions. From the standpoint of Foreign Missions, to neglect the Home Board is to kill the goose that lays the golden egg; for the money and the men who go to other lands must in the main come from the territory occupied by this Board; as every successful army must keep in close contact with its base of supplies. The work in Cuba has so prospered that there is now sore need of many new houses of worship without which our work must be greatly retarded. The Second church in Columbia has been aided to the extent of $5,000 and we are sure this money has been well spent.

The Home Board report gives the following summary of work:

FINANCES.

Receipts.—The total amount of cash received for the work of the Board from all States last year was $103,969.05, and from miscellaneous sources $5,514.24. Our receipts from all the States this year have been $127,850.56, and from legacies and other miscellaneous receipts $5,707.44, a gain from all the States of $23,881.51.

Every State, with exception of two small ones, increased its contributions over previous years. The aggregate net increase in cash contributions was 23 per cent.

If the Board had more money it could do more work—this is a plain fact which ought to appeal to everyone. The Baptists of the South are prospering out of proportion to their benevolence; and large gifts will help them more than anything else. We recommend:

1. A deeper and broader study of the work and of the field of this Board; and the raising of at least $15,000 for the next year.
2. More sermons and speeches about it and more prayer for it.
3. An extensive circulation of "The Home Field" and tracts which have been published to give the needed information to our people.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

If to your Committee is entrusted the duty of presenting briefly to the Convention the condition of the Baptist young people of the State, our duties to them and how we can most effectually meet these obligations, our hope is to embody volumes in a word.

A conservative estimate of the number of young people in our South Carolina Baptist churches would be 20,000. Twenty thousand young Christians entrusted to 85,000 older members of the brotherhood. The condition of the 20,000; enlisted but undeveloped. The duty of the 85,000; leadership and training.

ENLISTED BUT UNDEVELOPED.

1. Among this great host of 20,000 we note with gratitude that there are a number of active, vigorous, consecrated, developing Christians.

2. A large part of the 20,000 have been converted only a few years and have had but little time for development.

3. A number of them are passing through that period when they are in most danger from the firing from "doubting castle" and so need special care.

4. Many are anxious to have their lives given to Christian service but they do not know how or where to begin.

5. Each year it becomes less and less likely that the undeveloped of the 20,000 will become efficient workers. Tomorrow they will be harder to reach than they are today. By our next Convention they will have lost at least one year of service.

6. Yet, in the face of these conditions, many pastors' hands are practically tied and made helpless by the very churches in which these young people have their membership. Demands are made upon pastors which frequently make it next to impossible for them to "shepherd the lambs." They are without efficient helpers, lieutenants and leaders. Often a former pastor's failure to train the young men and women from the beginning of their Christian lives makes available leader material useless.

THE EFFORTS OF THE $5,000.

Our churches are beginning to recognize their duty to train the young Christians, but many efforts thus far have seemed a helpless reaching out in the darkness for plans for meeting that duty. The many Sunday Schools which have done excellent work have developed and trained the largest number. The other organized efforts have taken various forms, i. e., Unions, Young People's Prayer Meetings, Christian Culture Courses, Circles and Guilds for specific benevolent and educational work. Thus far only the borders of the immense field have been cultivated; and the woeful fact concerning many of these efforts is that they have been abandoned after a few years. We either have not found the best plans for young people's work, or we thus far manifest an incapacity for working according to the best plans.

Of the B. Y. P. U. it should be said that its plan of organization is excellent; its topics admirable; its courses splendid; and where successful in our State its fruits are glorious. We recommend its work and would welcome the extension of the same. It has been a great blessing to a few, but as not one tenth of our young people come under the influence of this excellent organization we may well ask, "Where are the great host of our young people?" Answer: Weighing heavily on many a faithful pastor's heart. Some are in the sanctuary on Sunday, but on Monday swallowed in the currents of materialism, indifference and inactivity; many are struggling practically alone, unaided and unheeded, against the powers of darkness to which they are exposed. Many are being developed—but how many as God would have them developed?

When we fail to train these 20,000 let us not forget that from this number will come our future pastors, missionaries, deacons and Sunday School workers. The comparatively few now well developed only serve to reveal the more clearly the large number of the undeveloped. May we heed God's call to "shepherd the flock."

Respectfully submitted.

W. E. WILKINS, Chairman.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

One of the special objects named in the Constitution of this Convention to be fostered by the Convention is Sunday Schools. This position has been confirmed by the long history of the Convention. It is fundamental to the practical growth of our churches and the advancement of the kingdom of Christ in the world. The Sunday School is the field of practical endeavor with Baptist churches. It is the one service in our churches where practical efficiency is required and emphasized. But so far the South Carolina Convention has fostered this object only by resolutions and words. This has given us a Sunday School situation that is, at least, very unsatisfactory.

The reports of the Sunday Schools of our State for the past seventeen years show that the enlargement in our Sunday Schools has not kept pace with the increase of the membership of our churches. In 1887 the membership of our churches was 72,554; the enrollment in the Sunday Schools was 40,545. In 1903 the membership of our churches was 101,074; the membership of our Sunday Schools was 47,710. In 1887 the enrollment of our Sunday Schools was 4,000 more than half of the membership of our churches. In 1903 the enrollment of the Sunday Schools was 2,800 less than half of the membership of our churches. The increase in our churches in seventeen years was 28,500; in our Sunday Schools only 7,100. The increase in the enrollment of the Sunday Schools in both Georgia and North Carolina has been greater in five years than in South Carolina in seventeen years. And from the direct testimony of a large number of our pastors we judge there is great indifference towards our Sunday Schools, lack of enthusiasm among our workers, and a very great need for trained officers and teachers for our Sunday Schools. But while the situation is unsatisfactory, it is not wholly discouraging. We have many progressive Sunday Schools, a larger number of pastors than ever before who emphasize and take great interest in the Sunday Schools, and a general awakening of our workers to the necessity of improving our Sunday Schools. But so far our efforts have failed to meet the necessities of the situation. .

Now look at the Sunday School work in the other States of the South. There are thirteen Sunday school Secretaries in the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention. The Sunday School Board, The American Baptist Publication Society, and several State Conventions employ these secretaries. Georgia, Virginia, North Carolina, Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Missouri, all have secretaries who give their whole time to the development of the Sunday School. Texas has three secretaries and is seeking another one. The recent State Convention in Texas put great emphasis on the Sunday School work. Florida, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky and South Carolina employ no men and spend no money on their Sunday Schools. These States are far behind the other States in the advancement of the Sunday School work. The greatest progress has been made in Texas, Georgia and North Carolina. These States put special emphasis on the Sunday School work, especially the training of teachers and officers.

Now this may not point out the way for South Carolina, but it is certainly suggestive. It shows what emphasis on the Sunday School work may accomplish. We must put more emphasis upon practical efficiency in the Sunday School. We believe it absolutely necessary to the growth of our churches. There is very great need for the awakening, organization and training of our forces. And we are quite sure that the South Carolina Convention desires to take no backward step in this work. We therefore reiterate the former position of this Convention, and its recommendation to the Executive Board that a Sunday School Field Secretary be employed, who shall give all or part of his time to the Sunday School work in South Carolina.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The supreme issue with our South Carolina people today is the maintenance of law as against lawlessness. In this struggle to maintain the majesty of the law, the best moral elements in every community find themselves allied with those that are on principle opposed to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

There has been for many years a strong undercurrent of Prohibition sentiment in the Commonwealth. When this sentiment had triumphantly vindicated itself at the polls by a demand for the abolition of the liquor saloon, a measure was proposed so plausible that it won the advocacy of many of the most consistent and active temperance men in the State.

That measure was the Dispensary system. Some of the seeming merits that won for it favor among the advocates of total abstinence were as follows:

1. The closing of every liquor saloon in South Carolina.
2. The State's assuming control of the harmful traffic with a view to restricting it within the narrowest possible limits.
3. The establishment of State Dispensaries where there had been liquor saloons and elsewhere only when demanded by a majority vote of the people.
4. The restriction of Dispensary sales to daytime, and to sealed packages not to be opened on the premises.
5. The establishment of a State constabulary to prevent illegal traffic in liquors.

But the real inducement that brought many temperance people into acquiescence, was the prospect of securing practical Prohibition by keeping the Dispensary at a safe distance from their own communities.

The best people everywhere have regarded the presence of a Dispensary as a menace and a curse to the neighborhood. So strongly has this sentiment impressed itself, that any suggestion to introduce a Dispensary where it does not exist, has been viewed with horror and alarm.

The deadliest blow that has been struck at moral freedom, was aimed by that clause in the statute law which says that a Dispensary, when once established, can never be removed till the heavens fall, unless it fails to pay financially. This places the sober and law-abiding element at the mercy of the lawless and the inebriate.

We file the following claims against the present management of the Dispensary system:

1. It has not only failed to steadily decrease the sales of spirituous liquors in the State, but it has awakened the suspicion that it was trying in various ways to increase them. This suspicion is strengthened by the recent refusal of the management to remove Dispensaries where an overwhelming public sentiment has demanded such removal. It is also strengthened by charges recently made in leading daily papers of South Carolina—which charges have not yet been denied—namely that there was thought of placing dispensary liquors, when desired, in large grocery establishments, to be sold by them as agencies for the benefit of the State.

Such an act would reverse the wheels of progress, and would put us back, in practice, to the early years of the nineteenth century, when almost every grocery had its whiskey barrel.

This suspicion is further strengthened by the locating of so-called beer dispensaries in many places—establishments which persons high in authority have characterized as illegal.

2. Our second claim is that many advocates of the Dispensary have sought to strengthen its grasp upon the masses of the people by large appropriations from its revenues for the maintenance of the public schools—an attempt to secure popular support for an institution that cannot stand upon its own merits. With strong arms and trustful hearts, we do not need this blood money to help us educate the children whom God has given us.

3. We claim that many recent Dispensary advocates have sought to discourage the appeal to local option by enacting a law which withholds the special school fund from counties that vote out the Dispensaries—a virtual bid for votes to keep whiskey in the counties where it is now sold, with a view to reducing taxes.

The heroic independence of Cherokee county challenges our admiration. By a decisive vote of four to one it has closed its three dispensaries, and has relinquished nine and one half thousand dollars profits from them in defence of a great principle, standing ready to assume the additional taxation for the maintenance of its schools.

Let this noble example be followed by county after county from the mountains to the sea board, till every legalized place for the sale of intoxicating liquors shall have been closed by the will of a sober and God-fearing people.

With this object in view we, as a Convention, heartily endorse the Temperance Law and Order League of South Carolina, and bid it God-speed in its important work.

We put ourselves on record as strongly favoring and urging such legislation as will give to every county and community in the State the unqualified right of voting out local dispensaries.

Nothing less than prohibition of the liquor traffic, whether conducted by individuals or by the State, will satisfy the rising Christian sentiment of our people.

But this is not enough; we must not use intoxicants ourselves. It is of the utmost importance that our membership should throw their personal influence in the right direction. The so-called moderate use of intoxicating beverages by Christian people is answerable for much of the drunkenness in the land. We should not touch the unclean thing.

We, therefore, also heartily commend the noble efforts of the Women's Christian Temperance Workers to inculcate total abstinence sentiment among the children of the State.

With charity for all and malice toward none, we resolve to stand, both by precept and example, for the great principle of total abstinence as the only safe one for a Christian.

We would solemnly emphasize the importance of so instructing our children as to make the rising generation uncompromising foes to the use of intoxicating liquors.

With such a sentiment widely spread, it will not be difficult to keep the dread evil of drinking away from our homes and our communities. Without such a moral sentiment, all the laws that may be enacted will fail to redeem us as a people from the curse of drink.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON OBITUARIES.

Your Committee on Obituaries very much regret that, on account of the absence of the very efficient and pains-taking Chariman, and some other members, we have not sufficient information to prepare a satisfactory report. We therefore give such information as we can, and recommend that the Secretary be authorized to amend this report.

COL. JAMES A. HOYT.

James Alfred Hoyt died at his home in Greenville, S. C., Friday, May 27, 1904. His death was a great shock to the public for it was not generally known that he was seriously ill. Only a few days before his death he was busy at work, and the Sunday immediately preceding his death he attended a large public meeting where he spoke with great force in the interests of law and good order.

Col. Hoyt was born October 11, 1837, in Waynsboro, Va. His father, J. Perkins Hoyt, was a native of New Hampshire; he came South for his health, located in Virginia, where he married Miss Jane Johnson. Subsequently the family moved to Clarksville, Ga., where they lived for a short while and thence came to Laurens, S. C., where James A. Hoyt grew to young manhood. The young man entered the printing office of the Laurensville Herald of which paper his father was editor. At the age of 18 James A. Hoyt went to Anderson, S. C., and entered the office of the Anderson Gazette, and subsequently established the Anderson Intelligencer. He remained editor of this journal until he entered the Confederate service, and after the war he revived that paper and continued with it till he moved to Columbia in 1877 and became editor of the Columbia Register. After two years in this work he purchased the Working Christian, which he changed into the Baptist Courier and moved it to Greenville. He remained editor of this paper and part owner till May, 1891, when he sold his interest. He subsequently bought the Greenville Mountaineer and continued its editor and owner till his death. As an editor he was fair, honest, courageous, courteous and considerate. He expressed his views in a remarkably clear and discriminating style. He was always ready to take a stand on all public questions, and strove to mould public sentiment in favor of truth and righteousness. He was wise and conservative, and conscientious in what he wrote for the public eye. He was a safe leader.

In the very beginning of the War Between the States Col. Hoyt volunteered, and marched with his command to the front. He was in a number of battles and was promoted for gallant and meritorious conduct on the field. He served in the Fourth South Carolina Regiment, under Col. J. B. E. Sloan, and afterwards in the Palmetto Sharpshooters, under Gen. Jenkins. He was wounded several times, and in 1864, while leading a command in a stubborn fight, at the Staunton River bridge, he received a wound in his left leg, below the knee, which crippled him for life, and in the last years of this battle-scarred veteran his crutch was his daily and constant companion, but the brave soldier never murmured and never relaxed his energies for the public good.

After the war he did his full duty in trying to build up the State in all respects. He was always interested in public and political affairs. He was ready with tongue and pen to serve the people. He was present in councils and conventions, and his advice was sought and gladly received. He was chosen as the standard bearer for the Prohibitionists in the Democratic primary election in 1900 and made the race for Governor on that issue and made a courageous fight, and although he did not win the nomination he did win the respect and admiration of the people by his noble bearing and his bold defense of the right.

Col. Hoyt was prominently identified, for many years, with the work of the Baptist denomination. As a Christian he was consistent in his life, upright in his walk, chaste in his speech, devout of spirit, child-like in faith, devoted to his church, liberal with his means, wise in the councils of his brethren, charitable towards those who held opposite religious opinions, and his Christian life won the confidence of all who knew him. The services he rendered the denomination on committees, on boards, in business relations, and in general meetings were always cheerfully performed. He loved his brethren and heartily enjoyed working with them. In turn they honored and trusted him. For many years he was a member of the Board of Trustees of Furman University, and as a member of the executive committee of that Board he rendered most valuable service to the University and to the Greenville Female College. He was a member of the State Mission Board for several years and his knowledge of the State made him a most valuable member. He was for several years a member of the Board of Trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and a member of the Board of Managers of the American Baptist Publication Society, and a member of the Executive Board of the American Baptist Education Society. He was at one time elected vice president of the Southern Baptist Convention.

For nine years he was President of the Baptist State Convention, and retired from that service, so ably, impartially and courteously rendered, at the Convention which met in Chester 1894. As the editor of the Baptist Courier he did a work for the denomination the far-reaching and constructive influence of which will never be fully estimated in time. In the conduct of this sacred trust he was conscientious and felt that he was doing a work for God. He loved this work because he felt that he was serving the brotherhood and promoting the interests of the Redeemer's kingdom.

He rests from his labors, and his works do follow him. Cheerfully and affectionately and faithfully he served his brethren and we honor his memory and thank God that we knew him and that his life touched and blessed so many other lives.

[Written by A. J. S. Thomas, by request of the Convention.]

E. A. LAIRD, M. D.

Dr. E. A. Laird was Moderator of the Orangeburg Association for several years. He was active in all denominational life, religious and educational, an active church worker. In the midst of his manhood God called him home.

REV. S. B. SAWYER.

Rev. S. B. Sawyer passed away January 2, 1904, in his eighty-second year. One of his churches was loyal to our brother until his end, though he was not able to do much active work. As a pastor he was much loved by his people. His impress is deep and lasting among the Baptists of the Orangeburg Association. The people delighted to honor him only to realize that their interests were his. He has now entered into his reward and his works do follow.

REV. H. W. M'LEMORE.

The subject of this sketch died in February, 1904. At an early age he gave his heart to the Lord, and later was granted license to preach, but did not use his gift in this work. He lived a quiet life on his farm near White Pond in Aiken county. He was a member of the White Pond church, to which he gave much of his time and prayer. His influence for good in his community and church was worth much. In the denominational work in his county he was active, and his counsel was sought by his brethren. He was honored and loved by those who knew him and in his death his church and Association sustained a great loss, and his faithful companion deprived of her only support.

He lost his life in attempting to stop a horse that was running away with a wagon in which there was a child. He died that others might live.

His work was done and he has entered into the joy of his Lord. At the time of his death he was about 67 years old.

REV. C. A. BAYNARD.

Rev. C. A. Baynard, many years ago, at a very great sacrifice, entered the ministry. After a long life of consecrated, useful service of the Master, in the lower section of the State, passed on to receive his crown, November 29, 1903. Meekness, gentleness, love, faith in God, and submission to God's will, were among his most conspicuous traits of character. With these graces, his life and labors could bring forth only good fruit.

We have gathered, in one way or another, the fact that the following named ministers have finished their pilgrimage and labors on earth, but, unfortunately, the members of your committee, who are present, are unable to give the information concerning them which they no doubt deserve, and which your committee would be glad to give, if we had only enjoyed the privilege of an acquaintance with them. This, however, is our misfortune, and does not prove any unworthiness of our deceased brethren, whom we would delight to honor:

Rev. Jno. R. Hiott, Colleton county, May, 1903.

Rev. Jno. G. Carter, Gaffney, December, 1903.

Rev. Jas. M. Kirton, Berkeley county, December, 1903.

Rev. J. M. Norris, Saluda county, January 7, 1904.

Rev. J. W. Powell, Georgetown.

We, the representatives of the constituent body of the State Convention of the Baptist Denomination in South Carolina, do agree upon the following articles as forming the Constitution of the Convention, and as the basis of the union:

ARTICLE I.

This body shall be styled the State Convention of the Baptist Denomination in South Carolina.

ARTICLE II.

The comprehensive purpose of the Convention shall be: The union of the Baptists throughout the State in efforts to advance the kingdom of Christ in the world.

The Convention will claim no right to lord it over God's heritage, believing that the right of government, under Christ, is vested in the churches themselves.

ARTICLE III.

Special objects fostered by the Convention, as tending to accomplish its comprehensive purpose, shall be: The Preaching of the Gospel in destitute portions of the State; the work of Colportage, including distribution of God's Word and approved Christian literature; the interests of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Sunday School and Temperance; the work of Christian Education; the maintenance of an Orphanage; and the care of Aged Ministers and the families of deceased ministers.

ARTICLE IV.

The preaching of the Gospel in destitute portions of our own State and the work of Colportage shall be known as State Missions, and shall be entrusted to an Executive Board, consisting of a President, a Vice President, a Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer, and an Auditor, who shall be Auditor of the Convention, and nine other members. This Board shall be appointed annually by the Convention, and the President of the Convention shall be ex-officio a member of the Board. Five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum. The Corresponding Secretary shall be the executive officer of the Board. The Board shall act under general direction of the Convention, and shall make an annual report to the Convention. The Treasurer shall make an annual report of receipts and disbursements. Besides the special objects entrusted to the Board, it shall also have authority to represent the Convention in all matters requiring attention while the Convention is not in session.

ARTICLE V.

Among special objects of the Convention, the support of an Institution of Learning in this State shall be considered as primary. The government of the Institution shall be committed to a Board of Trustees who shall be appointed by the Convention in accordance with the charter of the Institution.

ARTICLE VI.

In addition to the Boards provided for in Articles IV and V there shall be: A Board of Ministerial Education, to be appointed annually by the Convention, whose duty it shall be to gather funds to help needy and worthy young men while preparing for the ministry; a Board of Aged Ministers' Relief, to be appointed annually by the Convention, whose duty it shall be to gather funds for the assistance of aged ministers and the families of deceased ministers; and a Board of Trustees of Connie Maxwell Orphanage, to whom the entire management of the Orphanage shall be committed, subject to directions from the Convention, and one-third of whose number shall be appointed each year by the Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

This Convention shall consist of delegates from the Baptist Associations in this State, who may approve the measures here adopted, and from other religious bodies of the Baptist Denomination concerned in the promotion of the same objects with the Convention. Each Association shall be entitled to two delegates at large, and also to one delegate for each twenty-five dollars contributed since the last session of the Convention, to State Missions; and any Baptist church, Sunday school, Missionary or Education society, or individual, shall be entitled to one delegate for each twenty-five dollars contributed as aforesaid, for the purpose named; provided that every such delegate shall be a white member of some Baptist church in the State. The delegates shall be chosen annually, and satisfactory evidence of their appointment shall, on demand, be exhibited to the Convention.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Convention shall have a President, two Vice Presidents, a Secretary and Assistant Secretary, Statistical Secretary, a Treasurer, and an Auditor. The duties severally assigned to the officers of similar organizations shall devolve on those of this body; and they shall hold their office for one year, or until their successors are appointed, unless forfeited by unrighteous conduct.

ARTICLE IX.

This Convention will receive contributions, legacies and bequests for the several objects which it has in charge.

All monies specially appropriated shall be sacredly applied to the objects designated; but when any contributions or bequests are made without any special designation, discretion in their application shall be exercised by the Convention or Executive Board.

ARTICLE X.

The Convention shall have annual meetings; but in cases of important concern, the President may, at the instance of the Executive Board, call a special meeting.

ARTICLE XI.

Any alteration which experience may suggest can be made in these Articles by the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present at an annual meeting.

RULES FOR THE TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS.

1. After prayer on the first day, the names of delegates shall be enrolled, officers shall be elected and, when the body is organized, applications for membership from new bodies be decided on, and if admitted their attending delegates shall be received by the right hand of fellowship.

2. The meeting of the Convention shall be opened and closed each day of its session with prayer by the President, or by some person whom he shall request to perform the service.

3. The Minutes shall be read at suitable intervals, to the end that mistakes, if any shall have been made, may be corrected.

4. The following Stated Committees shall be appointed by the President early in each session to report during the session, viz:

(1) A Committee of Five on Preaching during the Session.

(2) A Committee on Time and Place of Next Meeting and Preacher for Convention Sermon.

5. The following Standing Committees shall be appointed by the President at his convenience during each session to report at the next session, viz:

(1) A Committee of Five on Foreign Missions.

(2) A Committee of Five on Home Missions.

(3) A Committee of Five on Woman's Work.

(4) A Committee of Five on Sunday Schools.

(5) A Committee of Five on Temperance.

(6) A Committee of Five on Order of Business.

(7) A Committee of Five on Young People's Work.

(8) A Committee of Five on Education.

(9) A Committee on Obituaries, consisting of one member from each Association, with the addition of a chairman, to gather, during the year, facts concerning deceased ministers and such others as have been distinctively active and useful in the work of the Convention, and to prepare suitable notices of them to be reported at the ensuing session, of the Convention.

6. Kerfoot's Parliamentary Law shall be Standard for the conduct of the business of the Convention.

7. No collections shall be taken in the Convention without a motion.

8. Any of the foregoing rules may be suspended at any meeting of the Convention, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

MINUTES

CONFERENCE OF BAPTIST MINISTERS OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

SESSION OF 1904.

HELD IN

THE BAPTIST CHURCH OF CHESTER, NOVEMBER 29 AND 30.

FIRST DAY—EVENING.

The Conference of Baptist Ministers of South Carolina was called to order by the Secretary, and upon motion of C. C. Brown, F. O. S. Curtis, of Dillon, was elected President. Upon motion of J. D. Huggins, Louis J. Bristow, of Marion, was reelected Secretary

J. S. Moffat, pastor of the Chester Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, W. E. Watson, pastor of the Chester Methodist church, and Livingstone Johnson, Secretary of State Missions of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, were recognized by the President and invited to seats in the Conference.

E. Y. Mullins, President of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, of Louisville, Ky., read a "class paper" upon the subject of "The Holy Spirit in the Messianic Activity of Jesus."

D. P. Bridges, of Lincolnton, N. C., the Rev. Mr. Mazyck, rector of the Chester Episcopal church, and Robert Murphy, pastor of the Second Methodist church of Chester, were recognized and invited to seats in the Conference.

H. P. Fitch, State Evangelist, spoke on the subject of "Individual Work in Conversion;" after which the body was dismissed with prayer led by Livingstone Johnson.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Conference was called to order by the President. Devotional service was led by R. E. Peele.

Rufus Ford read a paper on "The Ideal Religious Newspaper." The subject was discussed by C. Wardlaw, R. E. Peele, C. C. Brown, D. W. Key and A. C. Wilkins.

J. Q. Adams, of Charlotte, N. C., Harvey Hatcher, of Atlanta, Ga., W. H. Reddish, of Gastonia, N. C., and W. R. Gwaltney, of Hickory, N. C., were invited to seats in the Conference.

H. A. Bagby read a paper on "The Spirituality of the Preacher." E. M. Poteat spoke on "Unconsecrated Service."

A. J. S. Thomas read a list of the "new" preachers in the State—i. e., those who have moved into South Carolina since the last Conference—and President Curtis welcomed them in the name of the Conference.

Vernon I'Anson spoke on the "Essential Factors in the Growth of a Church."

R. E. Peele read a paper on "The Future Condition of the Lost," and E. A. McDowell, H. P. Fitch, E. Y. Mullins and others spoke on the subject.

J. Q. Adams led in a prayer and the Conference was adjourned.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Conference was called to order by the President and Brother Curtis led the devotional exercises.

J. B. Parrott read a paper on "The Preacher's Duty in Civic Life," and F. C. Hickson, Vernon I'Anson and H. A. Bagby spoke.

"The Essence of Christianity," a paper, was read by E. M. Poteat, and upon motion of A. C. Wilkins, was ordered to be published; whereupon E. Y. Mullins stated that the paper would be published in "The Review and Expositor," in the interest of which magazine he then spoke.

President Curtis appointed the following committee on program for next year: J. A. Brown, Chairman; V. I. Masters, E. A. McDowell, C. E. Burts, and J. Hartwell Edwards.

The Conference having completed its work, then adjourned.

F. O. S. CURTIS, President.
